The talent and training of Miss Cornelia Gills secured her a place on a recital program at the New England Conservatory. The honor is unusual for a first year student. Her previous instruction was received only from Miss Kate M. Franklin, of the Appomattox High School Miss Gills is the talented young daughter of our countyman, Mr. Pitzer Gills.

On Sunday evening, November 28th, at 6 o'clock, Miss Jusie H Hancock and Mr. Walter W. Scott were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents. The bride was prettily attired in a traveling suit of brown with gloves and hat to match. The happy couple left on the 6:30 train for a trip north. Their pastor, Rev. H. P. East, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. On their return they will make their home in Appomattox on the groom's parents farm at Old Courthouse. The bride is the attractive daughter of our townsman, Mr. W. M. Hancock, and the groom is a young progressive farmer. They are both deservedly popular and the best wishes of a host of friends go with them in their new venture.

She was a member of Centenary Methodist church. Deceased was a fine lady, greatly admired by a large circle of loyal friends. She had been living in Lynchburg about a year Her life was spent here, where she was best known for her many high traits of character. Services last Friday and interment at Liberty Cemetry.

Sad Accident

Abraham, the 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mayberry, who live on the Johnson farm about a mile and a half from Spout Spring was shot and instantly killed on Thanksgiving while out with a gun. His father loaned him a single barrel shot gun and one shell, and the boy went off to some woods near the house to fire the weapon Later his father saw a fire starting in these woods and went up there. While putting it out he came across the body of his son, whose clothing was also burning It is supposed that as he was carrying or possibly dragging the gun, it caught against some obstacle and was discharged, the load entering the boy's back and passing under the right lung causing instant death and setting his clothes on fire. Besides his parents who are deaf mutes, the little boy is survived by one brother.

An inquest was not deemed necessary. Mr. Mayberry who lived near here some years ago and whose wife is now in hospital has the sympathy of our people.

Another Tragedy at Spout Spring

Mrs Mary Elizabeth Roberts met a horrible death Monday when her body was burned almost beyond recognition. Mrs. Roberts, formerly of Lynchburg, but who recently had been making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs Eldredge Carson, near Spout Spring, had been under a physician's care for sometime past, but was not confined to her bed Her mother was out in the yard and was attracted by the screams of the daughter and rushing towards her found her clothing in flames and her body burned to a crisp. Mrs Carson being alone summoned help by ringing the farm bell Mrs. Roberts was taken into the home She died in about an hour, never regaining consciousness. She is survived by her husband, Elijah Roberts, one small son, three sisters and her parents.

Road Law Easy to Learn.

Highway law is not hard to understand. It is universally recognized as the clearest expressed and the simplest system of law on our statute books. It speaks, not in terms of dead phrasing, but in simple, direct, forceful language. Any motorist who cares to do so can ascertain his legal rights and liabilities in his state in 15 minutes' reading, and he won't need an attorney to interpret it for him, either.—Chesla C. Sherlock in Motor.

Metal Pen Result of Accident.

Some 80 years ago Joseph Gillitt was a working jeweler in Birmingham, England. One day, he accidentally split one of his fine steel tools, and, being suddenly required to sign a receipt, and not finding a pen handy, he used the split tool as a substitute. This happy accident is said to have led to the idea of making pens of metal.

Seaweed Largest Plants.

The largest plants in the world are seaweed. One tropical variety is known which, when it reaches its full development, is at least 600 feet in length.

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back — especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset.

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.

We want this Bank to be different—

To breathe a different spirit, to reflect a different attitude than is said to prevail in some financial institutions.

We desire that this shall be a bank of willing, cheerful service—broad in its views, generous in its sympathies, helpful in its strength—conservative only when conservation is necesssry to maintain that strength.

We want the conscientious interest that we hold for the welfare of our customers to be the magnet which will attract and hold the patronage of a discriminating and appreciative public.

We desire that this spirit shall prevail in every department and be reflected in the helpful attitude of every employee.

This has been our endeavor in the past. It will continue to be our aim and purpose in the future.
